

Primary School PE and Sport Premium

Academic Year 2022 - 2023

Sports Funding: £17,770

PE Subject Leader: Beth Dennerly

Key achievements to date July 2022:	Areas for further improvement and baseline evidence of need:
• Embedded a new PE curriculum across school, developing the Head, Heart and Hands approach. • Staff received CPD from specialist coaches delivering the scheme of work and assessment tools. • Provided staff CPD in all areas of the PE curriculum. • Developed the Daily Mile across school. • All areas of PE are taught to a high standard, the external provision has ensured high quality CPD for Teachers and teaching assistants. • Hall display to become embedded promoting the Head, Heart and Hands philosophy embedded through all lessons.	• Increase the amount of competition we are accessing through the School Games and other local providers. • Increase the amount of intra school competition through School Games organisers (Year 6 pupil leadership Team). Link up with local primary schools. • Develop our commitment to the School Games, increase the amount of competitive sport. Aim to achieve the Bronze kitemark. • Increase the amount of extra-curricular sport on offer. Develop the range of clubs on offer after school and lunch times, in particular in KS1. • More 'aspire' festivals attended through the School Games • Opportunities for SEND pupils
